

Fr. Andrzej Kopiczko, The Parish Church in Bisztynek in the Light of the Visitation of 1798

Summary

The undertaken analyses enable a conclusion that the investigated visitation of the parish church in Bisztynek in 1798 was very detailed and delivered many interesting information which were skipped in other archival sources. The main part of documents was dedicated to the material cases what is wholly understood for the priests were obliged to notify scrupulously all incomes and expenses of the parish. The especially important information refer to established benefices, priests who worked there, and liturgical ornaments and things.
