

Anna Korzeniewska-Lasota, The Dignity of Judge Office – Remarks Against the Background of Disciplinary Court Jurisdiction

Summary

The main topic discussed in the article is the question of the dignity of the post of judge of the common courts of law. The authoress, on the basis of the law and the jurisdiction of the disciplinary court, in that regard, sought to determine the scope of the concept of "dignity of the post of judge". She tried to answer the question, what specific requirements should meet the judge, and how he should behave, or how he should not behave, to make his duties in dignified way? The answer was constructed by identifying the normative responsibilities, basing on the Constitution of Poland, content of the oath of judges, articles 82. and 82., points "a" and "b" of the act of the Law of the Common Court and "The Rules of Professional Ethics of Judges". Then, under the jurisdiction of the disciplinary court of the Supreme Court was compiled the list of behaviors which affront to the dignity the post of judge.
