

Fr. Roman Szewczyk, How Can Marriage Be Celebrated Validly?

Summary

Throughout the ages the Church has taken care of marriage peculiarly. Its concern has taken many forms where the legal one was the most evident. Therefore there is a system of conjugal law which is subordinated to the aim of the Church. It concludes in a principle that there can not be any valid conjugal contract which is not a sacrament in the same time. The article presents the conditions which have to be met to celebrate marriage validly.
