

Maria Ankudowicz-Bieńkowska, Musical Concert in Elk in 1948

Summary

The authoress presents the musical concert which was held in Elk town in 1948. The event aimed at introducing vocal and instrumental works, and collecting funds for the construction of new organs in the church of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in Elk. The event was a continuation of the tradition which came to the Masury region with the people deported from Vilnius after the II World War. The paper contributes to reveal the impact of Poles from Vilnius on continuing old Polish traditions and creating new ones.
